

COMET

Developed in 1961 and released in 1974 by the USDA, Comet was selected for its high alpha acid content and adaptability to growing conditions in the Yakima Valley. Commercial production ceased in the 1980s in favor of newer super-alpha hops. Comet has made a recent comeback, finding favor in dual purpose applications due to its unique "wild American" aroma.

AROMA PROFILE

GRAPEFRUIT • FRUIT • GRASS • FLORAL

BEER STYLES

LAGER • ALE

BREWING VALUES

ACID/OIL

AVERAGE

LOW

HIGH

ALPHA ACIDS (34 - 37% COHUMULONE)

8 - 10.5 %

BETA ACIDS

4 - 5 %

TOTAL OIL

1 - 2.5 mL/100g

TOTAL OIL BREAKDOWN (% OF TOTAL OIL)

